

Kerry S. Arent

Vice President of Human Resources

Ms. Arent was named the company's Vice President of Human Resources in July 2009. She joined Appleton Papers in May 1982 as a human resources representative. From 1984 to 1987 she served on the human resources staff at company's mill in West Carrollton, Ohio. In 1987, Ms. Arent returned to Appleton Headquarters and was named staff compensation and benefits analyst. She was named Human Resources Manager in 1988 and since then has progressed through a range of benefits and compensation management positions. She has served as a Human Resources Director since 1997 and Executive Director of Human Resources in February 2008. She earned a bachelor's degree in human resources management in 1982 from the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh.