

Terry M. Murphy

Audit Committee member

Mr. Murphy joined Appleton and PDC as a director in June 2007. Mr. Murphy has been executive vice president and chief financial officer of A.O. Smith since joining the company in 2006. From 1999 to 2005, Mr. Murphy held various executive management positions at Quanex Corporation and in his last position at Quanex Corporation served as its senior vice president and chief financial officer. Murphy earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Wisconsin-LaCrosse in 1970 and a master's degree in business administration from Marquette University in 1974. He also earned a juris doctor degree from Seton Hall University School of Law in 1980 and is a certified public accountant. Mr. Murphy's financial background as a certified public accountant, former senior vice president and chief financial officer for a large vehicular and building products manufacturing company, and as the current executive vice president and chief financial officer for a large diversified manufacturing company, as well as his leadership experience in these positions, his graduate degree in business and degree in law, led to the conclusion that he should serve as a director of Appleton and PDC.
